WORSHIP WITH US THIS SUNDAY

SEPTEMBER 9TH AT 8:30 AM OR | 10 AM WORSHIP | 10 AM SUNDAY SCHOOL

Pastor Heather begins a new worship series: Outside My Own Little World

WE ARE A RECONCILING CONGREGATION

IT'S RALLY SUNDAY

THIS SUNDAY marks the start of a new worship series, "Outside My Own Little World". As our community turns back to school and hopefully back to church, we'll ask ourselves, why? Why do we attend or join a church? We will spend some time remembering why we are a Body together – being the hands and feet of Christ in a frightened and hurting world.

Rally Day – Get Drenched

DINNER & DIALOGUE Monday 9/10, 6:30 - 8:30 at UMW's President Donna's home. Enjoy a shared supper and interesting conversations. We can carpool from the church if needed. Sue Wiper, D & D Coordinator.

UMW BOARD MEETING Saturday, 9/15, 1 PM at Donna's home. Bring a small dish to share and creative plans for celebrating our 150th UMW birthday. Let's remember the women from Boston in 1869 who decided to send missionaries & teachers to India.

In order to keep the shop open, and support our church budget, we need more volunteers! Our greatest need is Wednesday and Saturday afternoons from 12:30 - 3:00 PM and as substitutes when others can't make it. Please speak to Heather Wolfe. 508-771-4354, if you would be willing volunteer (with a seasoned veteran) or be a substitute. Thanks

GREEN TIP OF THE WEEK

Entanglement, ingestion and habitat disruption all result from plastic ending up in the spaces where animals live. In our oceans alone, plastic debris outweighs zooplankton by a ratio of 36-to-1.

Take the 4R's
Pledge <http://www.plasticpollutioncoalition.org>. Participate in a free energy assessment with Cape Light Compact and you are eligible for free energy efficient light bulbs, free air sealing and free low-flow shower head and faucet aerators. There are also rebates on energy efficient products and enhanced incentives for income eligible residents. Call 1-800-797-6699 to set up an appointment.
